Greetings, [redacted]

b6 -2

I really enjoyed visiting with you regarding my book, Agent Bishop, this morning. I have spent two years writing it, and consider that experience one of the most gratifying of my life.

As I mentioned, the book presents an interesting dichotomy. I hope you enjoy reading it!

One thing I forgot to mention is that I have considered including copies of some of the letters of commendation that I have received from FBI directors from J. Edgar Hoover to Louis Freeh at the end of certain chapters regarding cases that I participated in. I also have pictures of some of the people involved and news clippings on some of the cases. I could make those copies available to you for review if you wish.

As I mentioned, the publishers, "Cedar Fort, Inc." of Springville, Utah are very anxious to publish this book, contingent upon its approval by FBIHQ, so I would greatly appreciate any timely attention you could give it.

Kindest regards!

Samuel M. "Mike" McPheters

Re: Manuscript titled, "Agent Bishop"

Dear Mr. McPheters,

This letter is in response to the February 25, 2009, submission for review, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures (MAOP), Part I, 1-24), of your manuscript titled, "Agent Bishop."

The manuscript was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and it was concluded that nothing contained in the submission fell within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to your making the manuscript, as presented, for publication.

You may include your former title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details, and if it is accompanied by a reasonably prominent disclaimer advising that the views expressed in the article do not necessarily represent the views of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process. b6 -2

Hello [redacted] Greetings and hope you had a good weekend.

[redacted] I am really concerned about being contacted by my publisher any day now as to the status of the Bureau approving my book and having to tell them that you have had it almost two months but haven't approved it. It will look bad, and they might back off. It is infinitely difficult to obtain a publisher, and I can't afford that to happen.

You mentioned the other day that you were calling someone and would get back with me within the next day or two. Please do that and at least tell me what the questions are. I thought giving [redacted] the pseudonym resolved it.

b6 -1

I talked to a retired agent that used to work in the research unit of records management this morning. He advised me it was his opinion that when I signed the agreement in [redacted] it was that I couldn't write a book for two years after I retired and that was the only stipulation. I have been retired since [redacted] If that is the case, is this all for naught?

b6 -1

Could you give me a call?

[redacted]
Thanks. Mike

Good afternoon [redacted]

b6 -2

I am [redacted] Coordinator of the Prepublication Review Office. My office's function is to review intended publications by current/former FBI employees to determine if the employee has included information obtained during FBI employment, which should not otherwise be released. Examples would be classified information, Rule 6e, sensitive techniques, pending investigations or prosecutions, source information, personal privacy info, FBI information not available to the general public through means such as FOIPA, the media or court records, etc.

As is more common than not, it is necessary that we call upon FBI "subject matter experts" to review the submissions of current/former FBI employees as the subject matter at issue is beyond the general expertise of my employees. It is in that regard, that I am contacting you.

I am sending two manuscripts, one from [redacted] Mike McPheters titled "Agent Bishop" and the other one is from [redacted] John Hauss titled "Taking the Conn and Nicking the Conn." Both manuscripts talk of using "human source information." Please review and advise if any information is releasable.

General Rules-We have 30 business days to respond to the author. We would like to respond to the requester as soon as we can. Also, as the material is proprietary information, it is not to be disclosed/shared beyond those persons involved in the review process. [redacted] was kind enough to give me your name.

Thank you

Hi [REDACTED] As I commenced another review of my book today, I found a few corrections, mostly very minor. I will have them done by tomorrow and will forward the corrected version to you. Like I say, they weren't many, and not very significant, but enough that I wanted to rework it a little. Thanks. Mike McPheters [redacted] thanks for taking the time to review this.

By way of background, [redacted], I've been writing as a hobby for about 10 years. Natural Sunlight is the first and only work I've submitted to pre-publication review. I don't have the exact date it was originally submitted, but I have a letter dated 07/19/2006 from David M. Hardy, Section Chief, Record/Information Dissemination Section, RMD memorializing their receipt of that draft. b6 -2

Over the last three years, I've tinkered with Natural Sunlight and changed, removed, or added scenes and dialogue. The plot of the story is the same but I've highlighted anything that looked at all different from the 2006 version, even if the scene was the same but the dialogue was at all changed. If you have any questions as you review, please feel free to contact me on my cell phone. Thanks very much,

SA Christopher G. Weismantel
